

Choose, Change, and Create With Flexible Wedding Band Designs

Today's couples are looking for wedding band styles that are unique and feel like a one-of-a-kind. And who can blame them? Every couple is different with a style all their own. It makes sense for the symbols of their everlasting love and commitment to be just as special.

You may have heard of our engagement rings featuring flexible 3C designs. This means you can choose the center stone size and shape as well as the metal quality and color. But did you know that we also offer wedding bands with flexible 3C designs? For the groom that wants a twist on the classic wedding band, Stuller's 3C wedding bands stand out from the rest.

Discover popular and bestselling 3C wedding band styles to show your customers that are looking for a band that is uniquely theirs.

Solitaire Styles

A modern take on the traditional bezel-set solitaire style, solitaire wedding bands use a center stone to accent the wider shank. Set with a diamond or gemstone in the shape and size of your choosing for a wedding band anyone would be proud to wear every day.

Multi-Stone Styles

Wedding bands featuring three and five accent stones are rising in popularity. With beautiful setting details, such as channel settings or shared prong settings, these accent stones perfectly bring that perfect extra flair to classic band styles. Even accent stones like these can be personalized with multiple shape and size options available.

Intricate Shank Styles

Center and accent stones are not the only way for a 3C band to shine. The wedding bands within our 3C assortment also feature intriguing and interesting shank designs, such as Celtic-inspired and rope details. Choose from Stuller's wide range of precious metal colors and qualities of gold, platinum, and silver.

Gender Neutral Flexibility

One of the best features of 3C wedding bands is their versatility. The width of many shank designs is able to adjust to the size of the stones being set in the band. With a wide range in both shank widths and finger sizes, these select band styles are perfect for both men and women.

With the fall wedding season in full swing and holiday proposals approaching, provide your customers with wedding band options that bring a little something extra. You can count on Stuller to provide rapid delivery on all personalized orders that you have come to expect and depend on.
